FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASESEBESTA BLOMBERG ANNOUNCES ENHANCED OPERATING STRUCTURE

February 16, 2010 — In an effort to align the company with our clients' needs, and bring more innovative solutions to them, Sebesta Blomberg has implemented an enhanced operating structure effective January 1, 2010.

Our new structure facilitates a highly collaborative and nimble model of executive decision making and responsiveness to our clients. This structure directly supports the specialized knowledge and experience we must bring to solve our clients' unique project needs. Sebesta Blomberg is organized into five market segments (Education, Government, Healthcare, Industrial, Transportation, and Utilities) with project performance delivered from our centers of excellence, each tasked with sharing best practices that enhance our delivery of superior solutions throughout our company. This dynamic collaboration ensures that new ideas translate into meaningful impacts on our partnership approach with our clients bringing real value to their projects and programs.

Our enhanced structure also brings forth the opportunity to provide career promotions to some of our most talented people. Sebesta Blomberg has promoted Stephen Halsted, Glin Jay, and Randolph Thompson to Executive Vice Presidents of the company. Randy Lorenz, Dave Harrison, Tom Schubbe, Nathan Germolus, Maryam Peters, Abbe Bjorklund, Bob Riesselman and Bob Barker have been promoted to the positions of Vice Presidents of the company.
